TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 2, 1900.

THE RENEGADES and deserters from the democratic party who say that party has abandoned them, not they, it, and that it has become the party of demagogues, of financial heresy, of populistic fallacies, and attacks on the courts of justice, may think they are right, but, on the other hand, may know they are wrong; and that many people are confident they are the latter, goes without saying. The democratic party only denounces "arbitrary" interference of federal authorities, as a violation of the Constitution, and government by injunction, as contempt of the rights of the States and of the citizens. Surely this is not an attack on the courts of justice; and few disinterested people think that the currency of the country that was good enough from the establishment of the government until 1873, and which is being coined now as rapidly as possible, is not a dangerous financial heresy, The democratic party is also opposed to allowing favored money dealers in Wall street to profit to the extent of millions of dollars by selling government bonds for gold, to pay the interest on government Ying are deprived of all their respecsecurities, and of surrendering the government's option of redeeming its bonds in silver or gold; and if that be a populistic fallacy, then certainly most American voters are populists. The men referred to are not only unpatriotic, but haven't sense enough to know that the course they are pursuing must prove disastrous not only to their country, but to themselves individually.

NORTHERN REPUBLICAN newspapers say : "It is now believed that the Hon. David B. Hill's speeches in Virginia will save that State to Bryan and Stevenson." It is not unnatural that they should talk this way, in view of the invitations Mr. Hill received from Richmond people to speak there. ed to the State department the con-It is doubtful if political speeches do any good, anywhere, or by anybody, but in a State so surely democratic that the republicans have practically abandoned all efforts to carry even a few, if any, of its congressional districts, that those of Mr. Hill, of New York, will be beneficial, few people believe. If his speeches could be serviceable anywhere, the uncertain example of the United States and begin which to make them.

The threatened race riot at Georgeown, S. C., was averted by Governor Sweeney, who ordered the dispensary and beer privilege closed. The negroes outnumbered the whites about seven to one in Georgetown, which is a coast city. The cause of the trouble was the arrest of a negro for killing a white man.

The grand jury at Prince Georges county Md., which met at Upper Mariboro, Md., yesterday morning, did not return an indictment on the charges of criminal assault upon Lucy Hart, brought against Sheriff Edward A. Shea William Shee, William Boteler, Todd Fox and William Smith, but it is acticipated that the hearing by the jury will be concluded and that some action will be taken regarding the cases today.

At the conclusion of Judge Merrick's charge to the jury, and before their retirement, State's Attorney Lewin stated that it was a painful duty for him to apprise the court of a statement made to him by Frank Hart, father of the alleged victim of the assault, that two members of the grand jury had approached Hart to pursaude him to compromise the case. Judge Merrick re-plied that he had slready been savised and that action would be taken in the matter at the proper moment. State's Attorney Lewin later stated that the jurors who are said to have made these advances to Har were Pinckney Scarges formerly sheriff of Prince Georges coun-

In his charge to the jury Judge Mer. rick said in part: "I had hoped to be able to congratulate you on the dim nution of crime in this county when you should come before me this fall. Unfortunately, there are as great a number of persons confined in the jail as ever before and I am denrived of that privilege. The condition of affairs in the county is such as to cause me a great deal of regret. The county has been subjected to a great deal of criticism for permitting crime to flourish within her confines.

"Some of the cases that come before you are pitiful in the extreme. They put the good name of Prince Georges county and her citizens in the mire. It is a condition that I have not known in the county for forty years. No cases of murder and arson are to be brought before you, but with that exception the list of crimes is pretty well filled, Judge Merrick also referred in his charge to prizefighting in the county,

THE CHINESE TROUBLES. Minister Conger, as stated yesterday, notified the State Department that Gen. eral Yung Lu, who is as objectionable to this government and the other towers as Prince Tuan, has been appointed on the peace commission. If not accepted, he and Tuan may start another rebellion in the interior of China. While German government officials deny the reports that France, Germany and Russia have an understanding regarding the retention of troops in Pekin, there are indications that the relations between Germany and Russia concertng China are very close.

The French government will ask the Chamber of Deputies to vote an extra credit of 39,000 000 francs, making 70. 000,000 francs in all, for operations in China.

A GREWSOME FIND -Two gunners from Baltimore explored a cave on the south side of Round Top Mountain, near Hancock, Md., Saturday, and discovered the skeletons of two Confederate soldiers chaiced together at the ankles. A silver dollar, half dollar and buttons from the Confederate unibones were bleached and dry. cave is in the precipitous side of the mountain, and can only be reached by walking on a pole resting on the side of the mountain. The skeletons were found in the second spart ment of the subterranean passage. Stonewall Jackson, when he bombarded Hancock, was encamped on the hills of West Virginia opposite Round [COMMUNICATED. THE EX-MAYORS .- There are five ex-Mayors now in the land of the liv ing, and I presume each one has read Mayor Simpson's card; yet only one has the nerve to admit that he read it carelessly. I have read the card twice, and if there is a single word in it which leads the public to believe that an ex-Mayor was alluded to in any way, shape or form, the subscriber does not know which one of the five ex Mayors penned the communication published in Saturday's Gazette, but his course seems to indicate that a shoe of the kind would fit him nicely. T. V. R. TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. The vestry of St. Fanl's Church met of Wednesday night, 26th and passed the let
